Appellants, by and through their counsel Josh Sanford of Sanford Law Firm, PLLC, for their Unopposed Motion for Rescheduling of Oral Argument, do hereby state as follows:

1. In-person Oral Argument has been set for May 11 in St. Paul.
2. Counsel for Appellant, who presented oral argument in the prior appeal in this case and has been preparing to present it in the instant appeal as well, has his son's high school graduation on May 11, and would have to miss it based on the timing of oral argument.
3. Accordingly, Appellant respectfully requests that the Court reschedule oral argument in this case for earlier in the same week that it is currently set, so that counsel for Appellant can present oral argument without scheduling conflict, but without causing an additional delay in the adjudication of the appeal.
4. The extension sought is for good cause and will not cause undue prejudice to Appellees.
5. Appellants have conferred with Appellees, who are unopposed to this Motion to the extent that the rescheduling occurs in the same week it is currently set.

WHEREFORE, premises considered, Appellants respectfully request this Court to grant this Motion and reschedule oral argument in the above matter sometime between May 8-10th, if possible.

Respectfully submitted,
